CHILD'S BODY FOUND IN WELL

dered, Indication.

GUILTY ONES UNCAPTURED

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Springfield, Mo., June 9.—Baby Keet is dead. The body of the missing 14-month-old son of J. Holland Keet, wealthy banker, was found in an old well on the deserted Crenshaw farm near here, named as the headquarters of an alleged abducting band, shortly before noon today. The body was brought to Springfield and identified by the father and the mother.

Mr. Keet and his wife are prostrated.

Officials were hurrying out of the city, thru fear of mob violence and seven persons held in connection with the investigation of alleged abduction.
Plot.

Secrecy in Search.

The report came from investigators who had gone to the farm in response to information, the source of which has not been revealed. The news of the finding of the body was telephoned to a newspaper office here.

Deserted House Used.
The Crenshaw farm recently was searched. An old house there, deserted for several years, was said to have been chosen as the headquarters for the alleged abductors who planned to kidnap C. A. Clement, wealthy jeweler here, and a St. Louis munitions maker.

The Keet baby was stolen May 20.
His parents had gone to a dance at the country club and the baby was left with a nurse and an older son.
Neighbors described having seen an automobile drive by the house at a rapid rate of speed. Three men were believed to be the abductors and it is assumed they took the baby from his crib.

ther contingent of American officers arrived at a British port today on the tary Balfour. The officers were met embassy.

New British Goals.
London, June 9, 2:45 p. m.—The British attacked last night south of the Somme river and entered the German positions on a front of more than two miles. The war office announced: The German line was penetrated to a depth of more than one half a mile. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans. The attack extended north of the river. The statement says operations were carried on with complete success on a wide front from south of Lens to La-Basse.

The Germans made a powerful counter attack last night over nearly the whole length of the new front.
They were repelled completely, the British retaining all the ground captured.

LA FOLLETTE AUTO SALE WAR TAX ADOPTED

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, June 9.—The Senate finance committee today adopted Senator La Follette's plan for a tax of 1 per cent on the original selling price of automobiles, to be paid by owners, in place of the graduated tax previously agreed upon. The proposed tax on conjecture was wholly abandoned.

The 1 per cent of automobiles will raise much less revenue than estimated under the former plan adopted by the committee, from which about $15,000,000 was expected.

Reduction of 10 per cent for each year's use up to 60 per cent is provided.

The new automobile rates are approved by the committee would be $5 for automobiles costing $500 or less, $7.50 for those costing from $500 and $7.20, $10 on those from $700 to $1,000 with an additional tax of $5 for every $500 in the cost in excess of $1,000. The committee estimated that from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 in revenues will be taken from 2,800,000 automobile owners.

A new tax on cabarets of 1 per cent for each 10 cents or fraction paid for admission, estimated to raise $2,000,- 000 and $3,000,000 was adopted by the committee. The tax will be payable by persons patronizing them.

KING RECEIVES GEN. PERSHING

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
London, June 9.—General Pershing was received this morning at Buckingham palace by King George. He was presented to the king by Lord
Brooke, commander of the Twelfth Canadian infantry brigade.

General Pershing was accompanied to the palace by his personal staff of 12 officers. After the audience the officers paid a formal call at the United States embassy.

After the formal reception the king shook hands with General Pershing and the members of his staff, and expressed pleasure at welcoming the advance guard of the American army.

YOUR HEALTH

(By JOHN B. HUBER, A.M., M.D.)

Frugality and sobriety are the best elixir vitae for a long life.

Chronic Gastritis.

This is a chronic inflammation of the stomach. The causes are:

- Habitual excessive, irregular or hasty eating. The most of us eat too much anyway and, as the saying is, "dig our graves with our teeth"; and with these implements all too often notoriously broken and deceased. And many of us do not eat at set hours as we should—three regular meals, and if hungry, a snack at bedtime. And many among usgulp down, instead of chewing properly, our food. We do not make of a meal a pleasant domestic ceremony; but as if it were something to be got through on the jump and away.

I mean if I can, to keep on the right side of my housewife readers; and yet stern duty compels the statement that very much of the food we eat is not well cooked. Fried food especially is indigestible; for this is coated with a layer of fat thru which the gastric juice is unable to penetrate. Improper, greasy, poorly cooked food, the deadly hot bread, pastry, excessive drinking of ice water, too much ice cream, tea, tipping, excess as to coffee, alcohol and tobacco—such are forerunners of chronic gastritis.

3. Whenever there is cancer or ulcer or enlargement of the stomach; whenever there is liver trouble or chronic heart disease, and in such like diseases are accompanied by a slowing of the circulation—in all such cases there is accompanying chronic gastritis; as also in many cases of blood poverty, chronic kidney trouble, gout, diabetes, and other serious diseases.

The chronic gastritis sufferer has a variable appetite, a coated tongue, a bad taste in the mouth. Soon after eating he has, under the breastplate distress, tenderness, often real pain and a feeling of fullness. Sometimes there is nausea. There is belching of gas and perhaps also of a bitter fluid. From a few minutes to perhaps two hours after eating there is vomiting; or he brings this on to relieve pain. In chronic alcoholic gastritis, the nausea, retching and vomiting is after breakfast. The abdomen is often distended, especially after meals, with constipation or diarrhea; and there is distress, oftentimes pain, in the abdomen. Headache, lassitude, lack of capacity for work, mental depression are common. And there result in time blood poverty and loss of weight.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Moths.

Would you tell me how to get rid of these pests?

Answer—A little out of my line. The United States department of Washington will, upon application by letter, give full information.

Swollen Eyelids.

My eyelids have had a swollen appearance ever since I was a little child. In order to see plainly I have to wrinkle my forehead. What could be the cause of this?

Answer—Perhaps granular lids—a contagious trouble. The kidneys may be affected. Or there may be infections, due to some nervous trouble. Best thing to do is to get yourself thoroughly examined.

Hair Falling.

My little girl had the scarlet fever three months ago and her hair is falling out. People advise me to have it shaved.

Answer—Have it cut short not cropped. It will grow again all right. "most always generally" does after serious infection.

EVENING CHIT-CHAT

(By RUTH CAMERON)

The Effective Shopper.

Yesterday I rode to town beside a woman whom I have always admired but known very slightly.

She is one of those people who do wonders with a small income of both time and money. Her three children are always daintily dressed; her home is most attractive and she herself looks as smart as a business woman with $3,000 a year to spend on herself.

Moreover she is always ready to help with any charity or philanthropy in the town, ever interested in the worthwhile things of the community or the nation.

She Has a Chronic Shopping List.

I have often wondered how she accomplishes so much and yesterday I discovered one of the factors in her efficiency—namely her methods of shopping.

In the first place she has a chronic shopping list.

That is, she keeps a little book in which she jots down the things she needs or will need in the near future.

She goes to town every other Monday morning because Monday is usually bargain day. She goes early because one gets the best bargains then but because one can accomplish twice as much before the more crowded hours.

Monday Is Not Her Wash Day.

But Monday, you say, is wash day, the busiest day of the week. Not for her. Monday is the day she picks up the housekeeping clothing ready for wash, removing any bad stains and doing any necessary mending, but not her wash day.

Before going to town she takes the Sunday papers and goes over the advertisements thoroly in connection with her shopping list. She sees what shops are advertising specials in the things she needs or is likely to need and she makes out a shopping schedule by shops. For instance—she's stocking for Junior, handkerchiefs, look at suits, see about bell. It's stock at white waist and men's shirts, etc., etc.

She Doubles the Value of Her Time.

She says she can dig up twice as much in this systematic way as she could when she went about her shopping in a casual manner.

Incidentally she always carries a Christmas list in her bag, glances over it from time to time and often picks up some article at advantage for her Christmas box.

If she carries on all the branches of her business as a homemaker in the same systematic, thought out, efficient way (and I have no doubt she does), it is easy to see how she gets full value for both her money and her time.

THE SEARCHLIGHT

Talking Movies.

Application has been made for a patent on a very elaborate device which would produce a combination of the cinematograph and the phonograph to give us moving pictures wherein the characters not only move but speak. The idea of such pictures is not new, but the difficulties of synchronizing have hitherto proved insurmountable. Synchronizing is meant the exact coincidence of the motion picture, projected by one machine, with the speech supposed to proceed from the characters, which is produced by quite another. Unless the speech comes at the right instant, the result is laughable rather than impressive. In the proposed device, the actual speech of the character is transmitted by wireless telephone to a phonograph whose complex receiving mechanism is synchronized with the movements of the moving picture camera.

To provide 11 such clerkships at a total monthly stipend of $1,375. When Mr. Sanford protested mildly in the committee that he would like information as to what the clerks would perform he was accused of "obstructing the public business." Altho he was given no recognition in the committee Representative Sanford laid the matter before the house, and showed so plainly that the plan was simply to give 11 chairmen additional patronage of $125 per month, that the recommendation of the majority of the account committee was overwhelmingly defeated.

Uncle Sam is engaged in rounding up the traitors and seditionaries of this country. And while there seems to be quite a number of these "undesirable citizens," it is evident that, after all, they constitute but a small sprinkling of the total population.

Another reminder that this is an exceptional year in place of the usual predictions of failure for the peace crop, come promises that this year's crop probably will be a bumper."

Another good thing about being a soldier is that it teaches one not to consider himself ruined after being Still Talking.

Congress is still in the talking business; it likes to hear itself talk. The country does not like to read talk, what it wants to read about is action.

Speed up Mr. Congress; pass the war bills, the tax bills, the food bills and other bills that will bring this war to a speedy termination. It looks like congress is a law unto itself; the people are the law, and if this dilatory action on the part of congress continues much longer the people will take a hand in the matter thru their president, Woodrow Wilson.

Pure Selfishness.

As a general thing the capitalist is the most selfish being in the world.

The other day in New York one of these selfish beings was solicited to make a donation to some charitable institution (don't think for a minute that it was the Red Cross, for it is not a charitable shop), but after repeated urgings on the part of the committee he gave them his check for $1,000; he thought that was a pretty big gift. But the next day, see what he did for himself—he bought a picture and gave $250.00 for it. That's what he was, dollars, for himself. If he had given $1,000 for a picture and $250.00 to the charity organization then I would have known that he had a heart in him, a great, big, generous heart. The heart of such a man is about as large as a mustard seed.

Muscle Sheas.

I had occasion to go to Washington in the interest of friend who assisted in making Muscle Sheas in Alabama navigable, for you see Uncle Sam is a little slack at times in paying his bills. I interested General Logan in the matter and one morning we called on Secretary of War Ramsey. Logan told the secretary that Hayward would tell him story.

The chief clerk denied my statements and things were getting a little warm when Secretary Ramsey, the old grannie, said to General Logan that we had better go and see Major Wright, who was then chief of engineers.

When we got into the coupe I told the general that Major Wright was the wicked party in the matter and there was no use to go to him.

The general replied that we would see what he would have to say for himself.

In a short time after we had been in his office, Major Wright informed us that the surplus in the Muscle Sheas matter had been turned back into the treasury. I reminded the general that Major Wright was the wicked party in the matter and there was no use to go to him.

The old gentleman asked me where I was from. I told him I was from Chicago. He replied by saying, "We don't want any of yo' goods, seh."

So I talked about something else, but I soon began talking stationery, and when he said as he did before, "We don't want any of yo' goods, seh."

Well, I didn't propose to be bluffed that way, and I told him about the good qualities of my stock, and that maybe I could save him money if he bought of me. He answered, "We don't want any of yo' goods, seh."

It was the old story. It grew monotonous, so I bid him good-day acknowledging to myself that I had been defeated. The negro picked up my grip.

I said "Good day." He answered never a word; he went on reading his newspaper.

I Didn't Locate.

I tell you this that you may see how strong was their prejudice against the negro.

When I lived in Joliet I visited the steel mills often. I delighted to go into the converter building where they converted pig iron into Bessemer steel. What is known as the converter, an egg-shaped vessel holding a great many tons of molten iron and is lined with refractory material. The bottom of this vessel is made of tiles third which are innumerable holes and after the molten iron has been poured from above into the converter the blast furnace begins to force thru these tiles and the stronger the blast the hotter the metal gets while decarbonization goes on. The man who is in charge of the converter never takes his eyes off the flame. How does he know when decarbonization takes place? The flame produced by the burning of the carbon no longer appears, and when that moment comes, the blast must be shut off at once. From the furnace above is poured into the converter a certain amount of speleigenite and then the blowing process is continued for a short time. Pig iron has been converted into Bessemer steel. After the speleigenite has entered the converter and the blowing resumed, there is emitted from the egg-shaped vessel millions of sparks; filling the large building and for a distance outside beats the Chinese fireworks all to pieces.

The Right Kind.

The congresses of the long ago were composed of big men. Roscoe Conkling one of the senators from New York was one of the big men, but unfortunately for the country, it always loses when a big man goes down. But machine men do not care for the country, only for themselves.

Roscoe Conkling got in their way and they killed him; he had heart.

In the sessions of the national republican convention of 1890 that was held in the exposition building on the lake front in Chicago, the big men of that convention came in late in order that they might receive an ovation from the delegates and the crowd—that presidential lightning might strike them. In the convention there were 306 delegates that were for General Grant and every ballot that was taken, the 306 voted for Grant, and that persistency earned for them the name, "Old Guard." Roscoe Conkling was one of the "Old Guard," one of the 306 that voted for Grant on the last ballot that was taken in that convention—when Chairman Hearst announced that James A. Garfield, having received a majority of the votes cast, was the nominee of the convention. Roscoe Conkling, General Logan, and the balance of the "Old Guard" have passed on, but they still live in the memories of those who loved them for their greatness. In the Digest of June 2, in the following tribute to Roscoe Conkling by Joseph H. Choate, the famous lawyer and ambassador:

"However we may differ," said Choate, "one from another or all of us from him, we owe the senator one debt of gratitude for standing always steadfast and incorruptible in the halls of corruption. Shadrach Meshach and Abednego was immortal glory for passing one day in the fiery furnace, but he has been 20 years there, and has come out with the metal still b-shut off at once.

From the furnace above is poured into the converter a certain amount of speleigenite and then the blowing process is continued for a short time. Pig iron has been converted into Bessemer steel. After the speleigenite has entered the converter and the blowing resumed, there is emitted from the egg-shaped vessel millions of sparks; filling the large building and for a distance outside beats the Chinese fireworks all to pieces.

Which Are You?

Are you a convert? What is converted in your vessel? Are you pion or Bessemer steel? Iron ore comes from the bowels of the earth and finally finds its way to some manufactury where it is converted into some kind of steel. Bessemer steel is principally used for making rails for railroads on which their freight and passenger cars and locomotives run while they are performing a duty for the people; a Brooklyn bridge maybe; or a skyscraper—all in the interest of the dead people.

It does not matter what kind of metal enters into your composition, but it does matter if the dross and slag are removed.

It is the dross and slag that make the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that makes the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that

makes the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that

makes the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that

makes the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that

makes the Bessemer steel.

It is the Bessemer steel that

PLAN LIBERTY LOAN PARADE

Procession Monday Night to Come After Big Day in the Shops.

BANKS WILL REMAIN OPEN

Arrangements are under way for a liberty loan parade thru the downtown streets Monday night. This is part of the demonstration planned for the day, when the final and greatest drive will be made to get subscriptions for the bonds here. Aurora is $200,000 behind on its quota of $750,000.

Addresses will be made at the shops and factories during the day and at theaters in the evening. Attorneys Sam Steffens and Maurice Lord have been added to the roster of the speakers who will canvass the factories and theaters. Arch and Ralph Richards of Geneva, and City Attorney Albert J. Kelley will speak.

Members of Post 20, G. A. R., militia companies and a number of other military organizations will be asked to take part in the parade.

People are expected to visit the banks in large numbers to make inquiries as to the loans, as the banks will be open from 7 to 9 p.m.

With but six days remaining in the campaign for the liberty loan, $100,000,000 must be subscribed each day to make up the $2,000,000,000 issue. Subscriptions heretofore have been at the rate of about $5,000,000 daily. Little doubt is entertained that the total amount will be raised, as those persons who habitually wait until the eleventh hour are beginning to flood the banks with orders. There is every indication that Aurora's quota will be oversubscribed, but it is necessary that every one do his or her share.

Speakers will be at the Burlington shops at 12:45 Monday noon in their round of the shops. More than 30 plants will be visited, bringing the speakers in touch with thousands of workers.

Besides subscribing for $5,000,000 of the bonds for the railroad corporation the Burlington has also made plans by which employees may subscribe to other allotments of bonds.

Bonds subscribed for by Burlington workers will be placed to the credit of the quota expected of Aurora.

SAYS CONSTABLE SEIZED AUTO OF WRONG PERSON

The automobile taken from the home of Mrs. Agnes Krantz, Claim street road, yesterday, was not the property of Dr. Harry R. Thurber. Mrs. Elizabeth Hankins, 180 Rural street, sister-in-law of Mrs. Krantz, said today. Mrs. Hankins says she bought the machine from Dr. Thurber on June 1 for $700. Deputy Sheriff Orr attached the automobile yesterday on a judgment for $320 assessed against Dr. Thurber in Justice Dutton's court by Isidor Leins, a contractor. He said Mrs. Krantz attacked him with a horse whip when he tried to get the car.

"Orr did not tell the truth when he said Mrs. Krantz beat him with a horsewhip," Mrs. Hankins said today. He also told an untruth when he said that Dr. Thurber has been staying nights at the Krantz home. My sister-in-law is a widow and it was unfair for Orr to say anything like that.

"I was the one who hit Orr but I don't know whether I had a horsewhip or not. He came, there after the automobile when he had no right to take it. I happened to be there and closed the gate. He tried to force his way in and one of the children handed me a stick or something. I hit him over the head once. Other women in the neighborhood yelled and told me I ought to hit him over the head."

"Dr. Thurber does not own the automobile. I paid him $700 for it on June 1 and have been keeping it at my sister-in-law's home temporarily. Dr. Thurber sold out his practice here some time ago and went to Chicago. He had not been roaming at the Krantz home. I have turned my bill of sale over to Judge Plain and he is going to replevin the automobile for me."

In the meantime the automobile is at the Coast garage in LaSalle street.

Calling Number Naught Will Immediately Summon All of Firemen to Their Posts.

The new firm alarm control board has been installed in the No. 1 station in North Broadway, and the new system will be inaugurated tomorrow. City electricians this morning made a final test of the board.

If your home or the home of your neighbor catches fire now, go to the telephone and tell central to give you "Number Naught." The girl will immediately connect your telephone with the alarm board at the central station.

The man at the alarm board will ring out all the companies if it is a fire of serious proportion. If it is just a small blaze the nearest fire company will be sent.

Under the new system any one company or all of the companies can be called from central board.

Chief Rang said today, "With the old system it was impossible to turn on a fire alarm without calling out the entire department. In the future it will not be necessary for all of the companies to rush to a small blaze and leave the remainder of the city unprotected."

If you want the police, call "42," either phone.

If you want the fire department, call "Number Naught," either phone.

Former Mayor Sanders conceived the "number naught" idea for the fire department when he was in office. It has taken a great deal of rewriting and the obtaining of additional equipment to put the plan into effect.

New York, June 9.—Potato peelings from all of the large hotels in New York are being saved for Cabot Ward, park commissioner, it was announced today. The peelings are being planted in the place of seed potatoes in community gardens under the supervision of the park department.

The results of this experiment caused Commissioner Ward to requisition the peeling supply for his vacant lot gardens.

CHILDREN PLAY WITH LIVE WIRE

Two Little Boys Near Death from Shock—One Sustains Burns on Hand.

"Come on kids, let's touch that wire; it won't hurt," Dwight McCreevy, six years old, shouted to a number of children at play in the front yard of his grandfather, L. R. McCreevy, 253 Spruce street, this morning. He pointed at a wire wound around a telephone post on the parking. He had been warned by his grandmother not to touch the wire.

CHILLS OF THREE BURNT.

Little Andrew Reichert, only three years old, son of W. J. Reichert, 183 Blackhawk street, was one of the "kids" who followed the McCreevy boy to the parking. He was too young to realize the danger.

The boys tip-toed up to the post and the McCreevy boy and the Reichert child put out their hands and touched the wire. Both screamed and were thrown backward. Mrs. McCreevy heard the screams and ran into the yard. The Reichert boy, the first finger on his right hand burned quite badly, ran home. A physician was summoned and said both boys were in no danger.

NOT TELEPHONE WIRE.

Mrs. McCreevy called the Chicago Telephone company, and John Conway, district manager, hurried to Spruce street with repair men. He found that the wire did not belong to his company.

"Rather dangerous plaything," the telephone manager said. "Both boys would have been killed instantly had they been standing on the parking instead of on the sidewalk."

The wire was blown down several days ago and Mrs. McCreevy says she reported it to the telephone company at that time. It was crossed with a high power wire in some other section of the city and this afternoon an effort is being made to find where the wire were crossed. In the meantime the end in front of the McCreevy residence was put out of the reach of the children.

SUGGESTS BUNGALOW FIRE ENGINE HOUSES

A suggestion has been made that Aurora erect some modern fire stations in the residence districts to replace buildings which don't match well with the well-kept homes in the immediate vicinity of the engine houses.

The person making the suggestion said: "Fire stations of the bungalow house style should be erected in the residence district, to conform with the other buildings. The fire department is now completely motorized and there should not be a great increase in the cost of the department, as there are enough trucks for several years, and the council could erect one new station a year, it seems."

No. 10 "Two Ways of Doing Business"

Any man in business today must make a decision between two ways of doing business.

Either—mark a high profit and sell few goods—or—take a small profit and sell much merchandise. We're doing the latter. We are in business to make money, of course, but we're making friends at the same time. Keeping prices fair keeps our business good. You could buy with your eyes shut in this store and still rest assured of value received and a reliable article.

We are doing business that way, because we are in to stay.

Washington, D. C., June 9.—Scattering a total of 37 base hits over the greenward the White Sox yesterday defeated Washington, 11 to 4, and went into a tie with Boston for the lead. There was no Walter Johnson to contend with, as Griffith apparently has run out of immortals. Common clay, represented by Shaw and Ayers, faced the Hoss. Shaw lasted five innings and retired, leaving a score of eight hits and six runs. The opposition was nicked for the rest of the game and runs, and is ready to go back to his trade.

Joe Benz tried to make the Seniors believe he had something. His effort was only partly successful, as the Nationals picked him for 10 hits. He sailed on smooth seas for three innings and then the breakers almost swamped him. A triple allowed to error and a single to the fourth. In the next round he was found for three more safe blows, but only one run dented the plate. He was beaten all the way to the end, but brilliant support brought him thru.

NEW EMMANUEL CHURCH SCHOOL

Handsome Edifice to Be Dedicated with Elaborate Ceremonies on Sunday.

INVITE OTHER CHURCHES

Tomorrow marks an epoch in the history of the Emmanuel Lutheran church. Its new and beautiful school building, which has been under construction since Aug. 28, 1915, will be dedicated.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the notable event. Invitations have been extended to the St. Paul Lutheran congregation of Aurora, and the Lutheran congregations at Joliet, Wheatland, Yorkville, Hinckley, Batavia and West Chicago. Friends and benefactors of the congregation are likewise invited and the public in general.

Big Children's Chorus to Sing.

A children's chorus and the church choir, led by Prof. E. C. Hoffman and Prof. A. H. Brinkman, assisted by a choir of 75 members of the Evangelical Lutheran church who isn't an expert with the knitting needles. The favorite stunt, especially in the hospitals, is to unravel their woman-made socks and re-knit them closer and better."

This same article says that Canadian and English women are collecting long evening gloves, sewing them together in strips or squares, patchwork fashion, and using them to line woollen sleeveless jackets for aviators. It begins to appear that the stock yards "using everything but the squeal" of the slain animals, will have nothing on the women in efficiency.

BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM FOR AURORA COLLEGE

Baccalaureate services for the Aurora college will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the Advent Christian church, Lancaster and Geneva boulevard. The Rev. O. R. Jenkins, president of the college, will deliver the sermon, marking the opening day of the week of exercises incident to graduation.

There are 17 graduates who will receive the sheepskin in the 1917 class.

Tomorrow's services at the church will be as follows:

Doxology, the Rev. D. H. Woodward.

Invocation, the Rev. D. H. Woodward.

Scripture reading, Prof. G. H. Downing.

Antem, choir.

Prayer, Dean R. C. Robbins.

Benediction.

Tuesday, June 12, 8 p. m., music recital.

Wednesday, June 13, June day games.

Thursday, June 14, 2 p. m., commencement.

The commencement address will be delivered by Hon. Francis G. Blair, L.D. Superintendent of public instruction for the state of Illinois.

IN THE WASH ROOMS

New and even more vigorous complaints than those of other days are being made against conditions in the women's wash rooms maintained by the Traction company at transfer stations in Justice to the community it should be stated that some of the people who take advantage of the conveniences are absolutely without thought for others and care not a whit as to the conditions they leave behind them. An arrest or two would help.

The congregation purchased property opposite the church and applied the same to school purposes of the lower grades and a teachers' dwelling.

Soon, the school again demanded more room and the congregation concluded in the spring of last year to build the school building which is to be dedicated tomorrow.

Plans and specifications were drawn up by the architects, Worthman & Steinthal of Chicago, Albert Riegel being the lowest bidder among competing contractors. His figure was $21,700 and he was awarded the work July 20, 1916.

On account of the removal of the old school building and the teacher's dwelling, work on the premises had to be put off until Aug. 28, 1916. To obtain more space and another home for its teacher, the congregation bought the adjoining property in Jackson street for $3,500.

The present school building, 76x67x43 feet, is very substantially built and one of the most attractive and modern in the city and its vicinity. It is sanitary in every respect and equipped with fire safety devices.

Bowling Alley in Basement.

In the basement are toilet and lavatory rooms, boiler room with two modern smoke-consuming boilers, coal bin, in addition to ample room for future bowling alleys and other amusements. There is also an available space for a playroom for children during inclement weather.

On the first floor are two entrances and exits, with a continuous hall from one side of the building to the other; and four rooms, each having two entrances and exits. Two of these rooms will be devoted to school purposes.

One room will serve confirmation classes and other pastoral work. The fourth room has been turned over to the young people.

On the upper floor are the kitchen and serving room for the Ladies' Aid society, a choir room, ticket office, and a most magnificent hall with stage. The seating capacity of the hall is about 400.

Beautiful Lights.

The beautiful lighting system, excepting the exception of the exit lights, where gas lights, according to ordinance, are allowed.

Social Chatter

Mrs. Alice Shelden, mother of Mrs. A. H. Crosby, has returned to her home in Iowa, after undergoing a serious operation at the Aurora hospital two weeks ago.

Miss Pearl Orbach entertained the Beta Delta Sigma sorority last evening at her home in Geneva boulevard. During the evening plans were made for a picnic July 4. Refreshments were served. Miss Alice Cottier of West street will have the club June 21.

Miss Maggie Neal Proctor and Mrs. E. W. Stubbs have been visiting Miss Marion Stubbs in Rochelle. Miss Stubbs is a Rochelle teacher. While there they saw a pageant, "American Citizenship," given by the Lincoln school.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Stubbs and Mrs. W. S. Johnson and Mrs. H. R. Johnson left this morning for Chicago where they will attend the commencement exercises of the Illinois Dental college. H. R. Johnson is a member of the class.

Don't Forget.

The following is taken from one of the current publications, and is worthy of note:

"Don't forget that if you are knitting for soldiers, you're knitting for real connoisseurs and critics. There's hardly a man nowadays in the British or French army who isn't an expert with the knitting needles. The favorite stunt, especially in the hospitals, is to unravel their woman-made socks and re-knit them closer and better."

This same article says that Canadian and English women are collecting long evening gloves, sewing them together in strips or squares, patchwork fashion, and using them to line woollen sleeveless jackets for aviators. It begins to appear that the stock yards "using everything but the squeal" of the slain animals, will have nothing on the women in efficiency.

Big Children's Chorus to Sing.

A children's chorus and the church choir, led by Prof. E. C. Hoffman and Prof. A. H. Brinkman, assisted by a choir of 75 members of the Evangelical Lutheran church who isn't an expert with the knitting needles. Dr. Kraus to Speak.

The sermon in the morning service, beginning at 10 a. m., will be delivered by Dr. E. A. W. Kraus from Concordia Theological seminary at St. Louis, Mo. These services as well as the services in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, will be in German.

In the afternoon the Rev. L. Hoechle from Chicago will preach the sermon in the church and Dr. Kraus will give an address in the new school hall.

Services in the evening, beginning at 7:30 p. m., will be held in the predominating language by the Rev. F. P. Merbitz from Chicago. The dedication of the school building will be conducted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. C. J. Fricke, assisted by the Rev. H. W. Casten and other theologians present after the morning services.

Teachers and school children, the building contractor, building committee, officers, members and guests of the church will proceed to the building to witness the impressive dedicatory act, after which the doors of the beautiful building will be opened that the building may henceforth serve its purpose.

Organized in 1901.

The Emmanuel Lutheran school was organized in December, 1901. The Rev. C. J. Fricke, pastor of the congregation, took charge of this school at that time. In April, 1902, Prof. E. C. Hoffman was installed as the regular teacher.

The congregation at that time held its services and school in the Evangelical Lutheran Norwegian church in Clark and Bevier place. This church building soon became too small for the prospering congregation and school. The present church building, with its annexed schoolroom, was built. The adjoining school building in the rear of the church building served, and will henceforth, among various purposes, serve as vestry and Sunday school room. The dedication of this school building took place Nov. 30, 1902. In the late summer of 1905, the Rev. C. J. Fricke extended the school classes, teaching the lower grades in his study. Miss Nettie Ehrich continued this work later on. In April, 1914, Prof. A. H. Brinkman was installed as second regular teacher.

The congregation purchased property opposite the church and applied the same to school purposes of the lower grades and a teachers' dwelling.

Soon, the school again demanded more room and the congregation concluded in the spring of last year to build the school building which is to be dedicated tomorrow.

Plans and specifications were drawn up by the architects, Worthman & Steinthal of Chicago, Albert Riegel being the lowest bidder among competing contractors. His figure was $21,700 and he was awarded the work July 20, 1916.

On account of the removal of the old school building and the teacher's dwelling, work on the premises had to be put off until Aug. 28, 1916.

To obtain more space and another home for its teacher, the congregation bought the adjoining property in Jackson street for $3,500.
